BRAFA ART TALKS curated by the King Baudouin Foundation

Involved in the fair for many years, the King Baudouin Foundation incorporates a Heritage Fund devoted to the conservation and protection of Belgian cultural heritage. This year, which marks the Heritage Fund's 30th anniversary, they are curating the Brafa Art Talks, focusing on themes such as the importance of public/private partnerships for the promotion of cultural heritage, archaeometry and cultural patronage. Daily at 4pm at the BRAFA Lounge

Homage to Julio Le Parc

A special homage will be granted to the Argentinian artist Julio Le Parc, born in 1928. Awarded the top prize for painting at the 33rd Venice Biennale in 1966, he was a pioneer of kinetic art and Op art. Four major artworks will be displayed at key places in the fair.
