

Press release BRAFA 2022

Floris van Wanroij Fine Art, founded in 2008, is an art dealership specializing in Dutch and Flemish Old Master Paintings, early European Sculpture and Works of Art from the Haute Époque period. Floris van Wanroij obtained a M.Phil in the History of Art and Culture cum laude from the University of Maastricht and Cornell University. Our collection comprises works of quality, art historic rarity and ascetic beauty. We are exceedingly attentive to restoration, preservation and art historic research.

At BRAFA we will present a collection of fine Dutch and Flemish Old Master paintings, dating from the early 16th century to the late 18th century, among which works by the Antwerp Mannerist Adriaen van Overbeke, Gillis Claesz de Hondcoeter and Joos de Momper. Also we will bring some exceptional examples of early European Sculpture from the late Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque period.

This year, two highlights from our collection are:

Michiel Jansz. van Mierevelt

Delft, 1566 – Delft, 1641

*Portrait of Louise de Coligny (1555 – 1620),
Princess consort of Orange*

Annotated with the collection number '95', lower left

Oil on panel

H. 45,8 cm. W. 39,5 cm.

PROVENANCE

Private collection, Germany

– The present work on panel – recently discovered in a German private collection – displays alterations in the composition, which indicates that the present work may be the – formerly thought – lost prototype by Van Mierevelt.

Jan III van Doorne

Malines, 1616 – Malines, 1663

A 'Jansenist' Cristo Vivo

Signed with monogram 'VD', under the right foot

Boxwood, carved in full round, on later ebony base

H. 40 cm. (excluding base)

PROVENANCE

Private collection, Belgium

– An exceptional example of Malines Baroque sculpture. Signed Baroque sculpture of this quality is very rare and the 'Jansenist' iconography of the present corpus is of art great art-historic interest. An extraordinary piece of museum quality, recently discovered in a Belgium private collection.
